Innsbruck – Passau

CYCLING ALONG THE INN CYCLE PATH...

The Inn cycle path follows the river of the same name always in sight. You cycle from the Tyrolean mountains through Bavaria to Upper Austria. The end of the cycle tour is the border town of Passau, where you can watch the impressive confluence of the Inn, Danube and Ilz rivers in amazement. Other highlights on your cycle tour are the Alpine town of Innsbruck, the fortified towns of Kufstein and Burghausen and the picturesque baroque towns of Obernberg and Schärding.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Innsbruck

Arrival to the provincial city of Tyrol. Take a walk through the beautiful old town of Innsbruck with its famous Golden Roof.

2

Innsbruck –Kufstein | approx. 50 km +Train ride

You leave the Tyrolean capital behind and cycle through picturesque towns and villages to Strass at the entrance to the Zillertal. Enjoy the breathtaking mountain panorama and take time for the old town of Hall and the Swarovski Crystal Worlds in Wattens. Take the train from Brixlegg to Kufstein

3

Kufstein – Wasserburg | approx. 65 km

Leaving the mighty castle complex of Kufstein behind you, you now cycle into the Bavarian Alpine foothills. Mainly on the embankment and partly in floodplain forests, the route takes you leisurely to Wasserburg. The special location in the river bend results in a unique townscape. With its historic old town, its beautiful facades and narrow streets, Wasserburg is certainly one of the most beautiful towns on the Inn.

4

Wasserburg – Mühldorf | approx. 50 km

The way to Mühldorf leads through cosy farmland, a little away from the Inn River, through small villages and beautiful hills. Typical for Mühldorf is the long town square with beautiful town houses.

DAY
5*Mühldorf – Kirchdorf* | approx. 45 km

Via Töging you bike today to Marktl. Next you pass the confluence of the rivers Inn and Salzach to Braunau am Inn. Worth seeing is the beautifully restored old town, the city tower from the 13th century and the parish church with the third highest steeple of Austria.

DAY
6*Kirchdorf am Inn – Bad Füssing/Surroundings* | approx. 35 km

This section leads through the Lower Inn European Reserve. The floodplain landscape with its exceptional plant diversity is a breeding ground for numerous water birds. A little away from the river you will reach Bad Füssing. Enjoy the huge health and wellness offer.

DAY
7*Bad Füssing/Surroundings – Passau* | approx. 35 km

On the way to Passau, picturesque baroque towns line up: Obernberg with its beautiful market square, the magnificent Reichersberg Abbey and the baroque town of Schärding with its Silberzeile. At the confluence of the Inn and Danube rivers, Passau rewards you as one of the most beautiful cities in Germany.

DAY
8*Departure or extension*

Return journey by train to Innsbruck (included) - transport of own bikes is not included

Tour character

Along the routing or in the river valley of the Inn there is almost an entirely flat route, three stages with short steep climbs.
