Lake Starnberg – based in one hotel

COME BACK WITH EXCITING STORIES FROM MUNICH AND THE ALPS

Discover the five-lake country on two wheels from its most beautiful angle. For seven days you will take your bike through the majestic scenery of the Bavarian Alps and nature reserves. The nights are spent in a charming hotel, where the pristine South German way of life between the mountains and lakes is still celebrated. Do not hesitate to put your confidence in the Eurobike team. You simply must experience this cycling holiday to the crystal-clear Lake Starnberg!

Details of the tour from Lake Starnberg

The first stage takes you from Bernried through the famous Pfaffenwinkel to Munich and onto the Ammersee. In the second half of the trip you cycle round Lake Starnberg. Each of the six nights is spent in the three-star Hotel Seeblick with the Sailer/Lütjohann family. In addition to an excellent location, the hotel offers an indoor swimming pool and sauna area, and is only a few steps from the lake. Treat yourself to some much-needed recovery on the cycle tour! Your body will thank you!

Highlights at a glance:

- Trip through Pfaffenwinkel: 159 churches and monasteries are situated between Lech and Loisach in the famous Pfaffenwinkel. A beautiful spot on earth awaits you, where monks and nuns have built many religious institutions in one place.
- Green glittering lake: On day five you cycle about 40 kilometres to the well-known Ammersee. The third largest alpine lake in Bavaria offers a rich water sports programme. Whether sailing, windsurfing or diving – you can try out a sport in the cool water!

Useful information about the tour from Lake Starnberg

Get pedalling and explore the beautiful state of Bavaria. You and your bike will spend 240 kilometres together as you explore Lake Starnberg. The Five Lakes country and its warm hosts make every day of your cycle holiday beautiful. Do you love Bavarian cuisine and tradition? Then you are in good hands on this cycle tour. The route is slightly hilly with few climbs. You take on each day on mostly asphalted and easy to cycle byroads. In the evening you just need to take a seat in the shaded beer garden and refill your electrolytes with a 'Maß' of beer!

Itinerary

DAY

Arrival in Bernried

You will find your travel documents and rental bikes at the hotel. Today, you can already enjoy the comforts of the hotel; or even take a first swim in the lake ...?

Trip to Lake Riegsee and to Murnau

| approx. 55 km

You will cycle on wonderful paths through unspoilt nature to Lake Riegsee. We recommend taking a short detour to the charming town of Murnau with its nice market street and many attractions. On the way back, you will be delighted by the picturesque Osterseen lakes, a group of 20 lakes which are among the warmest lakes in Germany.

Trip through Pfaffenwinkel

| approx. 35 km

After today's bike ride you can understand them - the monks, the nuns, and the priests - why they have built 159 churches in this area and a lot of monasteries. The Pfaffenwinkel is a wonderful spot, which can be best explored by bike. Places like the historic town of Weilheim with its car-free Marienplatz invite you to take a quiet break

Trip to Munich

| approx. 60 km + train

The day will start with a train journey to Munich. What could be better than exploring the attractions of the Bavarian capital by bicycle? Beautiful biking routes will lead you through the English Garden from one highlight to the next. Then, the Isar cycle path will lead you to Wolfratshausen and continue through the rolling hills back to Lake Starnberg

---

DAY
5*Trip to Lake Ammersee and Monastery Andechs*

approx. 30-40km

You will spend a day in the famous Pfaffenwinkel. A particular highlight is waiting the cyclists. Monastery Andechs not only has a lot to offer for the culture-hungry. Also the beer garden is one of the most beautiful ones in Germany. A nice walk will take you to Lake Ammersee and to Herrsching. Of course, you can also get there by bike. Afterwards, you will soon be back at Lake Starnberg.

DAY
6*Tour around Lake Starnberg*

approx. 50 km

The loop trail around Lake Starnberg is really beautiful and it will lead you from one lake town to the next. Not only the homes of the Bavarian celebrities lie along the way, also quaint shady beer gardens, Italian ice cream parlours and dreamy bathing places shape the image of today's cycling tour.

DAY
7*Departure or extension*

Tour character

The area around Lake Starnberg is moderately hilly, so that you will have to cycle a few short climbs. The majority of the trails are paved and some longer sections will be cycled on nature paths which are in good condition. The daily stages can be shortened individually.
