Munich – Lake Garda

CROSSING OF THE ALPS MADE EASY.

Haven't you always wanted to be able to say you conquered the mighty Alps by bike? Eurobike offers you the opportunity to do so. Because with the right bike, the perfect route and without luggage, this is no longer such an unbelievable feat! Start in Bavaria's state capital and follow the smell of freshly brewed espresso and blooming orange trees to Lake Garda!

Details of the cycle tour from Munich to Lake Garda

The starting point of this grandiose cycle tour across the Alps is cosy Bavaria. From the state capital you head to the sparkling Lake Starnberg, past the famous ski resort of Garmisch Partenkirchen into beautiful Tyrol. From here it is practically only a stone's throw to South Tyrol, where you will get to know the wonderful spa town of Merano, before you arrive at the unique Lake Garda and this always along the Adige!

Treat yourself to a well-deserved glass of Prosecco made just around the corner, and a plate of delicious pasta! Buon appetite!

Highlights of the Munich – Lake Garda cycle tour at a glance:

- The Hofbräuhaus in Munich: Before your tour, fortify yourself with a litre of Bavarian beer. It is one of the best and most popular beers in the world. The Munich Hofbräuhaus gives you a perfect insight into Bavarian pub culture.
- Auer and Lake Caldaro: The picturesque town of Auer and nearby Lake Caldaro are among the absolute highlights of this cycle tour. Have your camera ready!
- The north of Lake Garda: The largest lake in Italy is a read magnet for sports enthusiasts, sun worshipers and gourmets! Which group do you belong to?

Useful information about the cycle tour from Munich to Lake Garda

Over eleven days you will get to know the most varied impressions, contrasting landscapes and various kitchen influences on this cycle tour. From cosy Bavaria cycle past friendly Austria to spirited Italy. The daily stages of between 45 and 60 kilometres are mainly covered on wonderful cycle paths and side streets with little traffic. Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Munich

Bavaria's state capital awaits its visitors with numerous sights (English Garden, town hall, 'Hofbräuhaus',...).

Hotel example: NYX Hotel München

2

Munich – Lake Starnberger See

| approx. 45-60 km

From Munich through the Forstenrieder Park onto Lake Starnberger See. From Starnberg on the cycle path directly along the lakeside to Ambach or onwards to Bernried. The lake tempts you with crystal-clear waters and the views are fabulous onto the surrounding mountains.

3

Lake Starnberger See – Garmisch Partenkirchen

| approx. 65 km

Initially a cycle tour past Lake Riegsee to Murnau. Onwards through the nature reserve Murnauer Moos (Central Europe's largest marsh area) and through unspoilt nature following the river Loisach to Garmisch Partenkirchen. Here you have the option of a ride with the Zugspitzbahn up to an altitude of 2962 m (autonomously). From up there you enjoy a stupendous view over the Alps.

4

Garmisch Partenkirchen – Mittenwald – Leutasch

| approx. 40 km

Today you proceed along the beautifully developed cycle path all the way to the river Isar. You cycle through the sunny high mountain valley with marvellous panoramic views onto the Karwendel- and Wettersteingebirge-mountains to Mittenwald. Here we highly recommend a break and to take a stroll through the village with its Lüftmalerei-painted houses. You then continue in a spectacular fashion through the Leutaschkamm-ravine to Austria. You cycle along the Leutasch-stream through the stunningly beautiful valley all the way into your Day Finish.

DAY
5*Leutasch – Imst* | approx. 50 km

Today you cycle over into the Inn-river valley. You leave Leutasch on a country road leading you on gently hilly terrain before an eight-kilometre long descent takes you to Telfs. You cycle on the former towpath along the river Inn and so reach Stams with its Baroque Cistercian monastery. Then via Haiming it is not far to Imst, the so-called „North Tyrolean Merano“.

DAY
6*Imst – St. Valentin/Burgeis/Mals* | approx. 50 km + bus transfer

Today, you will cycle along the river Inn, past the monastery Zams to Landeck. A bus will take you to Nauders from where you will cycle less than 100 metres in altitude uphill to the mountain pass Reschenpass. From there, you will cycle downhill to Lake Reschensee and continue on minor roads to Mals (many towers in the centre) or to Burgeis at the foot of the castle Marienburg.

DAY
7*St. Valentin/Burgeis/Mals – Merano* | approx. 65 km

Your day starts with a trip to Glurns (perfectly preserved medieval city walls). Then, you will cycle via the Montani ruins, through Schlanders, down to Merano. On your way, you will come across some pretty castles (mountaineer Reinhold Messner's castle Juval) and you will get marvellous views of the impressive mountain massif Ortlermassiv and the mountain pass Stilfserjoch. Since 2004, the Venosta train (Vinschgaubahn) has been operating again between Mals and Merano. You can almost always take this train to travel a part of your journey.

DAY
8*Merano –Auer* | approx. 55 km

Today's stage will take you via Lana (Schnatterpeck Altar) and through numerous orchards and vineyards in the area of the South Tyrolean Wine Road, past many fortresses, castles, and ruins such as Hocheppan (famous frescos), to Lake Caldaro. You will stay overnight in the cosy wine town, Auer.

Hotel example: Villa Groff

DAY
9*Auer – Trento* | approx. 45 km

On the sixth day, you will cycle mostly along the river Adige, and partly through orchards to Salurn, where the German speaking South Tyrol ends. The famous Trentino vineyards are located next to the dam ways. These ways lead you to Trento with its lovely old town, cathedral and castle Buonconsiglio.

DAY
10*Trento – Torbole/Riva* | approx. 50 km

Today, you will cycle on bike paths along the river Adige via the old Tyrolean border town of Rovereto to Mori. From here, the route leads westward to Lake Garda. In Mori you will taste the world famous pistachio ice-cream in the Gelateria Bologna. After a short climb onto Passo S. Giovanni (150 metres), you will head down to the lake to Torbole or Riva.

DAY
11*Departure or extension*

Tour character

You cycle on marvellous cycle paths and little side roads and only on very short sections on main roads. Nearly every day there are small ascents to be tackled. The Reschen-pass will be bypassed via a bus transfer, then follows a descent of approx. 1200 metres in altitude to Merano. The route is mainly asphalted, a few longer sections also on well-maintained dirt roads.
