Details about the cycle tour through the Netherlands

Starting in Utrecht, you cycle via Amsterdam, one of the most famous cycling cities, from one pretty village to the next. The special thing about it: the region is richly equipped with windmills and traditional wooden houses. On your way through the rural area, old monuments, extensive dunes and modern buildings line the cycle paths.

As you pedal you reach the cities of Amsterdam, Zandvoor, Den Haag, Rotterdam and Gouda. From there you cycle back to Utrecht. In a nutshell: the trip through the Netherlands not only impresses with its cultural highlights, but above all with its unique landscape!

Highlights of the Netherlands

- Den Haag: Not only is the seat of parliament and government of the Netherlands located here, but also the residence of the royal family. In addition, Den Haag is the only major city in the Netherlands with a beach along the North Sea coast - a perfect mix of nature and culture that invites you to explore.
- Gouda: Another highlight of the tour is the city of Gouda, world-famous for the cheese of the same name. Since 1395, the cheese market has been held annually from April to August on the market square with its imposing town hall. As much of the Gouda is still produced and stored in and around the city, the region is also called Cheese Valley.

- Port city of Rotterdam: Unlike other cities, Rotterdam is a modern city with skyscrapers. City tip: Discover the many faces of the big city! Be it a leisurely stroll along the harbour, a coffee in the city centre or a stroll through the market hall. You will be amazed at what Rotterdam has to offer!
