Magdeburg - Hamburg

ALONG RIVER ELBE TO HAMBURG.

Around the river Elbe there is one of the most beautiful river areas in Germany. Floodplain forest, giant grasslands and small inland waters impress the landscape. Follow the river across the wonderful nature of Magdeburg till to the North Sea. The landscape shows you impressive human architecture: for example the mediaeval castle from Tangermünde, the Lauenburger palace and a lot of impressive constructions. The final destination is the cosmopolitan city, Hamburg. Nowhere else in Germany you find the impression of the width of the sea.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Magdeburg

Welcome briefing and distribution of rental bikes. We recommend strolling through the beautiful city!

2

Magdeburg – Tangermünde | approx. 70 km

You cycle through small and picturesque villages before you reach Tangermünde. This town was founded about 800 years ago and kept its medieval townscape until now. The medieval castle and the town, which was built under its protection about 800 years ago, are situated on a plateau above the distinctive floodplain landscape and the mouth of the small river Tanger into the Elbe.

3

Tangermünde – Havelberg | approx. 50 km

The nature park "Alte Elbe" offers habitat for numerous and seldom species of birds and allows a relaxed start in your bike day. The route leads you along palace Storkau to Havelberg, the island and dome city. This small and unimpressive city is located on the meeting of river Havel and river Elbe. Worth visiting is the dome in renaissance and baroque style.

4

Havelberg – Gatow am See/Wittenberge | approx. 40-65 km

This tour leads you via Wittenberg (second largest clock tower of Europe) and the UNESCO: Biosphere Reserves Elbe-Brandenburg through an amazing stream landscape to Schnackenburg (well-known museum). Your overnight stay is in the area around Gatow am See area or in Wittenberge.
